EDEN

And I said "What's up?
What you been thinking?
'Cause you been staring at that roof
So long, I swear it's come alive"
And she spoke nine words
And now we're sinking
But I can't find it in myself to want to lie
To keep this thing from going down 'Cause that girl took my heart
And I ain't want it back
No, I'm laying down my cards
'Cause you said it meant nothing
And I should've kept my silence
But I guess I'm too attached to my own pride to let you know
That all these words meant nothing
And I've always been this heartless
And we were just having sex
No, I would never call it love
But love Oh no
I think I'm catching feelings and I
Don't know
If this is empathy I feel just
Hold on
Remember why you said this was the last time Woah, hey, yeah yeah yeah
Woah, so I guess it's
Woah, hey, yeah yeah yeah
Woah, let die to let live
And what's good
When both choices I've got
Have us staring down the barrel
To the bullets I can't stop
And so I stand off
Like indecisions kevlar
'Till this fear of feeling stops and I'm done
But you No, I don't know how to forget you
No, I don't know how to forget you
No, I don't know how to forget you
No, I don't know how to forget you 'Cause that girl took my heart
And I ain't want it back
No, a bulletproof restart Oh no
I think I'm catching feelings and I
Don't know
If this is empathy I feel just

Hold on
Remember why you said this was the last time
Woah, hey, yeah yeah yeah
Woah, so I guess it's
Woah, hey, yeah yeah yeah
Woah, let die to let live
No, I don't know how to forget you
No, I don't know how to forget you
No, I don't know how to forget you
No, I don't know how to forget you
