

You've Got Nothing to Lose

Michael Kiwanuka

Son, don't you use your eyes
Just as long as it feels
Son, don't you be surprised
It's the trouble that heals Nothing will turn around
Nothing will move
Nothing will change your mind
You've got nothing to lose Son, don't you turn around
I got all that you need
Son, you won't be let down
I got all that you need
Heavy not, light and free
Is the way that you feel
Open your eyes to see
You've got nothing to lose Son, don't you do to me
Don't you throw me away
Son, don't you do to me
Don't you throw me away
Heavy not, light and free
Is the way that you feel
Open your eyes to see
You've got nothing to lose
