

Catching Feelings (feat. SIX60)

Drax Project

Caught up in a dream that I just thought was passing through
Colored in with vivid memories of me and you
And on a moonlit night I've never seen stars this bright
No I can't help it I've been catching feelings over you
And I hope you catch them too
I hope you catch them too
And I've been going crazy over you
(I've been going crazy)
And I hope you're crazy too
I hope you're crazy too Crazy too
Ooh, yeah

Got me running wild in fantasy like you won't believe
Mmh, I caught a glimpse of what I failed to see and that's all I need
I don't wanna let more time slide, I'll trade in a thousand nights
For just one with you I've been catching feelings over you
And I hope you catch them too
I hope you catch them too (yeah)
I know I've been going crazy over you
And I hope you're crazy too
I hope you're crazy too Crazy too
Ooh, yeah I've been catching feelings over you
And I hope you catch them too
And I hope you catch them too (yeah)
I've been catching feelings over you
And I hope you catch them too, oh-oh yeah
I've been catching feelings over you
(And I've been going crazy over you)
And I've been catching feelings
And I've been going crazy over, over, over, over you
Over you
