

Chanel

Saigon Kick

If you see me in the pouring rain
No, I'm never coming back again
For you, my beloved Chanel Walk along my dear hand in hand
No not a tear not a grain of sand
For you, my beloved Chanel Dancin' on the moonlit sky
Glancin' in each others' eye
Oh, my heart does swell
Believe me when I say to you
You really ring my bell Walking in the park the other day
My heart skipped as I heard him say
For you, my beloved Chanel
Crying, screaming, ranting, raving mad
If you were dead, boy would I be glad
For you, my beloved Chanel Dancin' on the moonlit sky
Glancin' in each others' eye
Oh, my heart does swell
Believe me when I say to you
Go right to hell Dancin' on the moonlit sky
Glancin' in each others' eye
Oh, my heart does swell
Believe me when I say to you
You really ring my bell Laughin' as your grave is built
Not an ounce of shame or guilt
For you, my beloved Chanel
I never cried, I never could
All the blame will do no good
For you, my beloved Chanel
For you, my beloved Chanel
For you, my beloved Chanel
