

Lonely (feat. Lorine Chia)

Jamila Woods

Lonely lonely that is me
Lonely lonely that is me
Say don't take from me my quiet
Don't take from me my tears
Don't take from me my trials
Don't take from me my fears I could be crazy
But my crazy is my own
My own, my own
I think I'm crazy
I'll be crazy on my own
My own, my own
I put a sun in my lamp
I put a post-it note on my mirror
So I might love myself
So I might be enough today
I'm not OK, thanks for asking
I can tell I've said too much I'm out of touch
Guess no one ever really wants to know I don't wanna wait for my life to be over
To let myself feel the way I feel
I don't wanna wait for our lives to be over
To love myself however I feel
A place where I'm alone
Searching for a place where I'm alone
I get lost when I'm alone
I get lost when I'm alone
Searching for a place where I'm alone
When I feel, when I feel, when I feel alone
When I feel, when I feel, when I feel
When I feel, I said when I feel
Alone, alone
