

Apocalypse

Jackie Evancho

Fixing to find you in this treacherous terrain
There's landslide, and landmines, it's a jungle that we made
You're not the king of it no more
And I'm not the girl that you'd die for
None of us is better than the other
None of us is better than the otherIt's draws blood
The sweet sting
But it's poison that we know
I thank God you found me
And God knows how I let you goAre we a kingdom worth saving
Is it a shadow I'm chasing
I know I'll never see you in another
You know you'll never see me in another
To lose you, really lose you
I'm gonna have to lose myself
I'm gonna have to lose myself
No matter how long it'll hurt like this
White knuckle into the apocalypse
Gonna go crazy, crazy to lose youDay flies, and night falls
I break out my artillery
I suit up for night crawls
I go out, disguised as meNo matter how much I flaunt it
I can't go home 'cause it's haunted
I don't know if my heart can still afford this Sleeping in a bed that was our fortress
To lose you, really lose you
I'm gonna have to lose myself
I'm gonna have to lose myself
No matter how long it'll hurt like this
White knuckle into the apocalypse
Gonna go crazy, crazy to lose youUsed to love listening to sad songs
I'd trace my finger all along
The silver linings
Now I don't listen to sad songs
'Cause my old world's blowing up behind me
It's all for good
A better world will find meTo lose you, really lose you
I'm gonna have to lose myself
I'm gonna have to lose myself
No matter how long it'll hurt like this
White knuckle into the apocalypse
Gonna go crazy, crazy to lose youNo matter how long it'll hurt like this

White knuckle into the apocalypse
Gonna go crazy, crazy to lose you
