

666

Sugar Candy Mountain

Dan Moe the Dixie
Devil of my heart
Where the cotton meets the corn
That men can get a real good start
He goes
666, 666 (x2) Talk slayers in the hall and
He's breathing filthy air
Delta queen just needs a spit shine
Brush the tangles from her long blonde hair
She goes
666, 666 (x2)
Seen the view from Look-out Mountain
I watched the battle above the clouds
It was on the TV in the gift shop
Another war with the volume turned down
They go
666, 666 (x2)
