

Fly

Ciara

You know what I think?
You should just fly If you have any feelings
Let'em go, let'em go
I woke up wasting your kiss
You can go, there's the door And I know that I wasn't in the picture
Tried to paint it, looking perfect
And it never worked for the both of us
I'ma let you know, now I'll let you go
You should fly
For the first time in a long time
Just fly
Let you go, let you go
Let you fly
For the first time in a long time
Just fly
Let you go, let you go
Oh! When I was at your house
I was sad, I was down
Tried to fix what we had
Didn't work, wasn't sure And I know that I wasn't in the picture
Tried to paint it, looking perfect
And it never worked for the both of us
I'ma let you know, now I'll let you go
You should fly
For the first time in a long time
Just fly
Let you go, let you go
Let you fly
For the first time in a long time
Just fly
Let you go, let you go
Oh! Oh! Oh! Oh! You should fly
For the first time in your own line
Just fly
Let your real ambitions go
And fly
You should fly
For the first time in a long time
Just fly
Fly, fly, fly
