

Paradise

Big Sean

I always wanted to stunt so hard
I always wanted to ride that whip
I always wanted to fuck that bitch
Thank you God I fucked that bitch
I always wanted to live this life
I always wanted to wear that ice
I always wanted paradise
I always wanted paradise Look, Now it don't take a lot to make you rich.
I'm addicted to a lot of crazy shit
But I feel like money is the best drug Sometimes hate can be the best love.
Walkin' in like I got cameras on me
Niggas can't control me, ain't no handles on me
Shit don't get outta hand; it get handled homie
Gotta pretty young girl look like Janet on me
She a pretty penny and she know
I'm doing numbers 'til we crash up the whole data base
I bring her home like I'm base-to-base-to-base
Closet lookin' like Planet of the Bathin' Apes
Whatchu think this life just landed on me?
My whole city look like it's abandoned homie
And we came straight out of those abandoned homes
Every wish we ever had got granted homie
And I never take that shit for granted
Even when the marble floor and counter toppers are granite
Back before I got paid any advances
Back when my Rolie was tickin' no dancin'
Nigga never did I slip or I panic
Even if I was the captain of Titanic
Ridin' thru the North Atlantic, homie.
I never jump crew or abandoned, homie.
All the fruits of my labor organic, homie.
Makin' sure my family tree got hammocks on it
And a good guy can change, especially if you short-changed. So, fuck is my ransom, homie? Money bag, money bag, money bag x4 I always wanted to stunt so hard
I always wanted to ride that whip
I always wanted to fuck that bitch
Thank you God I fucked that bitch. I always wanted to live this life
I always wanted to wear that ice
I always wanted paradise I always wanted paradise. Straight up
Finally famous nigga
Aw damn, damn Aw damn, I'm illuminated, man, I knew I make it
And I get that shit accumulated

Never throwing money out, I boomerang it
Finally famous over everything, that's a numerator
Weed lit, yeah, it's luminated, room lookin' like it's fumigated
Bitch, my crew invaded, when I walk in, man, they body to body
Hol' up everybody, don't worry, man, I got it, I got it
I need a hundred dollar bill, photocopy the email and copy
Man, I'm going hard all season
These hoes goin' both ways, offense, defense
Livin' life on the deep end, F-F allegiance
Beat the odds and got even
What you think, that we just started, nigga?
Boy, the sword just got sharper, nigga
This ain't war, we just sparring, nigga
I was on the rooftop with my nigga Mike Carson, nigga Shootin' that "Too Fake" video, my nigga, we all in
We set ourselves apart from all our apartments
Was up in Florida, no Marlins, nigga
I'm that Shawn, no Marlon, nigga
Look at my girl nigga, fuck yo' bae list
Fuck yo' night list, fuck yo' day list, fuck yo' playlist
I'm from the D, fuck your A-list
I been working 8 days a week
I don't even know what the fuck today is
I hit the booth and I just went super saiyan
I run with the purp like I play with the Ravens
These bitches rant and rave
I hope I never have to go back watching
Everybody Loves Raymond
Eating ramen, nigga, this paradise
Life's a fucking paradox and pair of dice
If they not rolling with you, then they parasites nigga
I had that vision, it was ClearSight, nigga, Sean Don
