

The Love We Stole

Bear's Den

I was heaving
Breaths I couldn't bear to breathe in
You came running
And stood there silent, summoning my sin
To let it all out now
Show the world the love that you stole
Let it all out now
Show the world the love that you stoleThe love that you stole
The love that you stole
Hey love can't you hear me calling
Hey love, things keep falling
Hey love can't you hear me calling
Hey love, things keep falling
The love that we stole
The love that we stoleI was bawling
In some things you just can't help from falling
And all of your wisdom only makes me feel like I
I don't deserve the freedom
To love with my own heart
To care for another more than myself
To love with my own heart
To care for another more than myselfThe love that we stole
The love that we stole
The love that we stole
The love that we stoleHey love can't you hear me calling
Hey love, things keep falling
Hey love can't you hear me calling
Hey love, things keep falling
Hey love can't you hear me calling
Hey love, things keep falling
Hey love can't you hear me calling
Hey love, things keep fallingThe love that we stole
The love that we stoleThe love that we stole
The love that we stoleThe love that we stole
The love that we stole
