

Don't Stop the Madness

Tenth Avenue North

There's a beggar down inside of me
Standing on the corner of your street
And my shame is my only company
Could use some cash but can't admit my need
For what you've got and what I could receive
I need Your love to come and break the silence
Don't stop the madness
Don't stop the chaos
Don't stop the pain surrounding me
Don't be afraid Lord to break my heart
Just bring me down to my knees, yeah
All I hear is what they're selling me
That God is love; He's isn't suffering
And what you need is a little faith in prosperity
But oh my God I know there's more than this
If You promise pain, it can't be meaningless
So make me poor if it's the price for freedom
Don't stop the madness
Don't stop the chaos
Don't stop the pain surrounding me
Don't be afraid Lord to break my heart
If it brings me down to my knees, yeah
In a marriage lost and a cry in the dark
Don't stop with Your love
In a mother's tear for the child in her arms
Don't stop with Your love
We're breaking down, we're falling apart
Don't stop with Your love
And with new life to see this is Your mercy
Don't stop with Your love
Don't stop the madness
Don't stop the chaos
Don't stop the pain inside of me
Do whatever it takes to give me Your heart
And bring me down to my knees, Lord
Don't stop
Don't stop
Just bring me down to my knees, Lord

Lyrics provided by <http://greatlyrics.net/>