

Buried Dreams

Carcass

Welcome, it's a world of hate
Your life of buried dreams
Smothered, by the soils of fateWelcome, to a world of pain
Bitterness your only wealth
The sands of time kicked in your face
Rubbed in your faceWhen aspirations are squashed
When life's chances are lost
When all hope is gone
When expectations are quashed
When self esteem is lost
When ambition is mourned
...All you need is hate
When aspirations are squashed
When life's chances are lost
When all hope is gone
When expectations are quashed
When self esteem is lost
When ambition is mourned
...All you need is hateIn futility, for self preservation
We all need someone
Someone to hate
Welcome to a world of hate
When aspirations are squashed
When life's chances are lost
When all hope is gone
When expectations are quashed
When self esteem is lost
When ambition is mourned
