

Have You Ever?

Shawn McDonald

Have you ever wanted to be someone else?
Have you ever wanted to be someone? Have you ever wanted to reach your dreams?
Have you ever wanted life to be more than it seems? I have tasted of love so wide
That it stops all my time. And I have tasted of love so deep
That it blows my mind. Have you ever wanted to reach up and touch the sky?
Have you ever wanted to pack it up and say goodbye?
Have you ever wanted someone to care?
Have you ever wanted someone to be there? I have tasted of love so wide
That it stops all my time. And I have tasted of love so deep
That it blows my mind. And he is sweet, he is sweet.
What you're looking for
Is my sweet, sweet Jesus. What you're looking for
Is my sweet Lord.
