

Rainbow's Cadillac

Bruce Hornsby

Well he came to town with a strong pull
Would flash his moves for the worshipful
The shoulder moves from side to side
Go over your head and dot your eyes Well every night about a quarter to ten
From the middle of June to the summer's end
People would gather from miles around
To see the mighty Rainbow knock 'em down He'd pull up from around the back
Folk's say, "There's Rainbow's Cadillac"
Well the fancy shirts and shorts of plaid
Coat of more colors than Joseph had Well every night about a quarter to ten
From the middle of June to the summer's end
People would gather from miles around
To see the mighty Rainbow knock 'em down Take a quarter from the collection plate
Every night he would dominate
Jump to the top and pick off a dime
Throw it down at the proper time Every night about a quarter to ten
From the middle of June to the summer's end
The people would gather from miles around
To see the mighty Rainbow knock 'em down
Knock 'em down, knock 'em down
Every night about a quarter to ten
From the middle of June to the summer's end
The people would gather from miles around
To see the mighty Rainbow knock 'em down
Knock 'em down Knock 'em down, mighty Rainbow
