Quilly

REAL! I'm a real one. REAL!
I'm a real one. REAL REAL!
I'm a real one real one! She gone bus' it for a real one
She gone pop it, she gone drop it for a real one
She said she met a hitta, never met the real one
Now put ya bottles in the air if you a real one
Streets love me I'm a real one
Got everybody fuckin with me I'm the real one
Now who the hottest in the city, I'm the real one
Now put ya bottles in the air if you a real one
First of all, I'm a real one
If shawty fuckin with Quilly, then she a real one
I'm with my hitta he gon hit you he the real one
And I ain't leaving out the county till the bills done
I buy a bottle for everybody, you hang with just anybody
Very important person, Quilly not anybody
She been with a lot of hittas, but never the real one
She want a deep boy, she want a real one
Giuseppe, Fendi baby, Ferragamo
I'm a take her to out while she tired of McDonalds
She tired of these lames, she tired of these frauds
She said she want a real one, come ride with a boss
She gon buss it for a real one
She gonn pop it, she gon drop it for a real one
She said she met a hitta and never met the real one
Now put ya bottles in the air if you a real one
Streets love me I'm a real one
Got everybody fuckin with me I'm a real one
Now who the hottest in the city, I'm the real one
Now put ya bottles in the air if you a real one I got a presidential Rollie it's a real one
My bitch ass fat, it's a real one
And if she buss it open, throw some real ones
I got the f'n with the 30 it's a real gun
I knew I was a real one since a youngin'
I grew up in the projects, now look at how I'm stuntin'
I started with a onion now I got a lot of cousins
And them bitches they was frontin' now they buggin' cause I'm buzzin', But I treat it like it's nothin
Prolly cause I'm a real one
I came in the game real when I'm still one
Now shoutout to my day one's, they the real ones
They be the same hittas with me when the deal comes She gon buss it for a real one

She gonn pop it, she gon drop it for a real one
She said she met a hitta and never met the real one
Now put ya bottles in the air if you a real one
Streets love me I'm a real one
Got everybody fuckin with me I'm a real one
Now who the hottest in the city, I'm the real one
Now put ya bottles in the air if you a real one
