

Is Anybody Listening

Danity Kane

been waiting to see the light been waiting up all my life show me your way wont you show me your way Dawn I wanna come out of the dark but breaking away is so hard
just show me your way show me which way to go cant do this by myself cant do this (oh no oh oh no) dont know how I should bear the cards that I been dealt cant do this Is anybody listening
can anybody answer my prayers
please say yes
is anybody feel the same is there anybody who cares lifes unfair Aubrey i want something more than this i given all i can give show me the way wont you show me the way D. Woods i just wanna feel i belong i just need the strength to be strong
wont you show me your way show me which way to go cant do this all alone i cant do this all alone dont feel like i know how to make it on my own Is anybody listening
does anybody feel the same
lifes unfair is anybody listening can you hear me Is anybody listening

lifes unfair
