

All My Love (feat. Natalie Lauren)

Trip Lee

I see you watching
Do you like what you see?
Am I seeing love?
Well, sort of, kind of may be what did you have in mind?
Your face looks familiar, I see you all the time
Right Here, Right Now Jay was lonely, and he's lookin' for love on the net
A man has needs, what' you expect? he looked through all the pages
When he found her, then he lost his breath, cause it was love at first sight when they met
His heart beating Hard
She was kinda light skin, Eyes like he liked them
Can't fight them feelings when they hit you this hard
It's long distance so he's with her online all the time
He's at work but this girl is on his mind all the time, he can't wait to see her
She got them banging features, when they together he don't mind
He gotta pay with Visa
His homies warned him, slow down, that woman can't complete you
But he's in the game of love?
Or so he thinks, thinks but i forgot to say jay is married and he's heart supposed to be locked away
I pray he'd break it off but he's weaker within and he'd be lost if he can't see the regain, he's all in
Baby come here cause i got what you need and
You want it, you want it
Come see me again, cause i've been waiting for you since morning
And i promise all my love is sittin' here waiting just come get it, get it
All my love is sittin' here waiting just come get it And he ain't never seen a face like hers plus her waist right
Can't fight the urge he always met her at the same sight
His boys told him tell his wife cause this ain't right
And he was too afraid then she caught him and they fight
Words exchanged she's like what's this charge
Have you been cheating have you been seeing some other brat
He's trapped now and so he boxed down
He's feeling like he's feeling all effects now and so he tells about his different lover
And his obsession and hows he's always eyeing pictures of her It's an addiction it's wicked, he wants to fix it but the Feeling is in him, he's really drifting, he starts to wonder
Is it worth it cause his wife said he's gotta choose
She's like its her or me, your family you're about to lose
Now jay got the blue, he wants to scream cause he loves that pretty woman on the screen
She's like
Baby come here cause i got what you need and

You want it, you want it
Come see me again, cause i've been waiting for you since morning
And i promise all my love is sittid here waiting just come get it, get it All my love is sittid here waiting just come get itMy Dude Jay is at a crossroad, he felt he had joy and happiness but lost all
Feels like a lost soul, running down a wrong road, how did i get here
He's at his all time low and now he's crying out, crying out Devastated, like how did she even find me out, then he remembered
That God he simply can't stomach our wicked sin and he disciplines the breakers of it
Now it hits in the depths of the heart, he calls
The way he grieve as Lord as he hang on the dirty Cross
The way he hurt his wife and flaunts his perverted flaws
He might mess around and lose is family so he pause
He takes his laptop, her pictures on the backdrop
He smashes it with a hammer and takes the trash out
He calls his wife and he's repenting in tears
And says he wants to be committed for years and God hears!
