

Flying Away

Sheppard

OooOOOooooooOOOoooI'm flying away from a state of decay
What a mess, my princess.
Everything we made eroded away.I promised a game, it's a shame you've been tamed.
Never mind, you're too kind, and I'm only trying to save some face.OooOOOooooooOOOoooIt's hurting to stay in this frame that wont fade, You promised a kiss in a bottomless pitt, and you wonder why I'm lying awake.
You say you've had enough, you say we're outta love, but this is something that we both thought we could rise above.
You say you're missing me, we're both in agony, or is it just the thought of someone else having me?OoooOOOooooOOOooooOOO
So let go of all regret
And get back into my bed
While the night is painted red
Lets forget all the shit we said.I'm flying away, feel the strain, feel the pain
But I'll be ok, I'll be safeOOOoooOooooOOOOOOOOooooOoOo
