Million men took a shot and lost my love
Ain't he lucky he got it
And he got it, yeah he got it, so oh
See whether you're awake or
You're far away from me, remember
That any way you wake up
I, gotcha love
Whenever I'm away or
I'll remember me in your arms
And any way you wake up
I, gotcha loveMy heart was on E
Time on [?]
I wait a million seconds
Try a million rings, just to feelHow I do now (How I do now)

And he got it, yeah he got it, so ohSee whether you're awake or
You're far away from me, remember
That any way you wake up
I, gotcha love
Whenever I'm away or
I'll remember me in your arms
And any way you wake up
