

Half a Minute

Basia

What is there to say when all the love has slipped away in a half a minutethere is always something we can blame, but in the end, it's just the same suddenly you'll find yourself alonehalf a minute half a minutewhat is there to say when every dream just fade away in a half a minute every explanation we can find, will never change it, we are through suddenly you'll find yourself alone
half a minutesuddenly you'll find yourself alonehalf a minute half a minutehalf a minute
half a minute
half a minute
harf a minutehalf a minute
