

Till the Sun Comes Up

Gavin James

Lately I've been,
Lately I've been losing,
If I don't want to go in the morning I'll stay in,
Some things you, Some things you can't explain,
Someone take me out the water, out of the rain,
Cos I just wanna come back again, come back again, Oh I just wanna wait till the sun comes up,
The stars in your eyes disappear when you grow up,
And soon you'll realise when your down and you can't get up,
But I just wanna wait till, till the sun comes up,
Till the sun comes up,
So when your moving all you ever do is run,
You always say the worst is coming when the worst has come,
So when your feeling black and blue,
And when you think the whole world is falling down on you with all the words that fly at you, Oh but I just wanna wait till the sun comes up,
The stars in your eyes disappear when you grow up,
And soon you'll realise when your down and you can't get up,
But I just wanna wait till, till the sun comes up,
And o-o-o-oh I just wanna wait till, till the sun comes up, Oh is a hard I find with this hide this love
Oh is a hard I find i think we should let this go
And this hide this love, they don't let you go
Oh but I just wanna wait till the sun comes up,
The stars in your eyes disappear when you grow up,
And soon you'll realise when your down and you can't get up,
But I just wanna wait till, till the sun comes up,
And o-o-o-oh I just wanna wait till, till the sun comes up
