

Someday

Kygo & Zac Brown

Come and take this heart while I'm away
'Cause I want you to hold it, babe
I know that you'll keep it safe
When I'm way too far, far away
A stranger in a different place
Lord knows I'll miss you, babe I swear the highs ain't high enough
God knows the lows won't let me up
This space and time between you and I
I'll never leave you in the dust
Foreign skies and open roads
The only place that I call home
Is in your arms and in your eyes
Where I belong
And I don't know how
Don't know when
Someday I'm gonna see you again
I don't know how
Don't know when
Someday I'm gonna see you again
Someday I'm gonna see you again
Someday I'm gonna see you again
Someday I'm gonna see you again
Crowded streets, seem empty to me
In a town that never sleeps
Without you lying next to me
All the phones and faces
Droning on and on and on
The longer the distance is
I forget about our differences
I swear the highs ain't high enough
God knows the lows won't let me up
This space and time between you and I
I'll never leave you in the dust
Foreign skies and open roads
The only place that I call home
Is in your arms and in your eyes
Where I belong
And I don't know how
Don't know when
Someday I'm gonna see you again
I don't know how
Don't know when
Someday, I'm gonna see you again
Someday, I'm gonna see you again
Someday, I'm gonna see you again

Someday, I'm gonna see you again
Someday, I'm gonna see you again Don't know why, don't know why
Don't know why, don't know why
Don't know why, don't know why
Someday, I'm gonna see you again
