

My Love Is Good Enough

Jeremy Jordan

My love is good enough, yeah
Won't you tell me what you want, baby
I'll give you more than you need, yeah
Won't you show me what it takes
For you to know what this means
If I picked you up in my personal limousine
And showered you with roses
I would want to date you like I haven't, mind you
If that's what it takes to prove, baby
My love is good enough
Good enough place to start
My love is good enough
Good enough to open your heart to me, yeah
Won't you show me what you like, baby
I only want to please you
And I'm, I'm not beyond begging, baby
You've got me on my knees
Oh, you know that I would do anything you say
Any little thing at all
If I'd told you I'd wait no matter how long it takes
Will that make you believe, baby?
My love is good enough
Good enough place to start
My love is good enough
Good enough to open your heart
My love is good enough
Don't you think it's worth a try?
My love is good enough, yeah
Good enough for you and I, come on
Oh baby, good
My love is good enough, yeah
My love is good enough
Good enough, you know it, baby
Yeah, come on
Yeah, if that's what it takes to prove, baby
My love is good enough
Good enough place to start
My love is good enough
Good enough to open your heart
My love is good enough
Don't you think it's worth a try?
My love is good enough
Good enough for you and I
My love is good enough
Good enough place to start
My love is good enough
Don't you think it's worth a try?
Good enough
My love is good, good enough

Good enough to open your heartMy love is good
Come on, baby
Come on
