

Baby's Blue

Cody Johnson

Watching that clock
tic-toc'ing on by.
Had to talk myself
out of up and quitting outright.
But I heard that we were working late.
I called my baby on my next break.
She was a hot mess,
she had a bad day.
She took a deep breath,
next thing she had to say,
was honey I want you.
Baby's blue,
yeah she needs me by her side.
So blue,
I can hear the tears in her eyes.
Lord knows I need this job,
there's bills to pay
but I'd walk away if I had to.
Mm, baby's blue.
Finally off work,
crank up my pick-up,
drive off like a madman
cause she needs my love
like a songbird needs a tune.
I'll tell you just what I'm gonna do.
I'm gonna
wrap her up tight,
kiss the tears out of her eyes.
Man I swear
if I hit another red light
I'm gonna drive on through,
I'm gonna drive on through cause.
