

Human

Blake Lewis

I'm just human, pure emotion
Meant to love you, say you want to
I'm just human, pure devotion
I cant have you, what would I do
What I did
The writing is evident
These walls are closing in
Don't wanna break free
Couldn't get enough
Which led me to fall in love
These veins are flowing lust
Shooting though me
You found my weakness
I can't defeat this
And I'm feeling that you're feeling the same
I'm just human
Born to do things to you sugar,
Tell me where and when to start
Woah
I'm just human
And I don't wanna lose it
Gotta find a way into your heart
Before it's too late
I'm just human, pure emotion
Meant to love you, say you want to
I'm just human, pure devotion
I cant have you, what would I do
I can't help myself
For reasons i cannot help
You've got me like no one else
Struggle to breathe
I know we've played this game
See though me like cellophane
Can we keep it simple, babe?
Let me go deep
You found my weakness
I can't defeat this
And I'm feeling that your feeling the same
I'm just human
Born to do things to you sugar,
Tell me where and when to start
Woah
I'm just human
And I don't wanna lose it
Gotta find a way into your heart
Before it's too late.
We tried to fly
This love must be a crime

I'm the apple that you picked
Just as long as it is you and me I'm just human, pure emotion
Meant to love you, say you want to
I can't have you, what would I do I'm just human
Born to do things to you sugar,
Tell me where and when to start
Woah
I'm just human
