

I Really Don't Need No Light

Jeffrey Osborne

There goes another night time
There goes another dream
When will it be the right time?
It's later than it seems I used to wait for you
All that has changed so soon
How much can someone love
A someone like you? I really don't need no light to see through you
I really don't need your love to see me through, yeah
I really don't need your heart to set me free
I really don't need the way it used to be, yeah And who was that lone arranger?
How did he get to you?
Who were those other strangers?
What did they make you do?
Where was their party from?
You with that number one
How could you feel so high
Just living a lie? I really don't need no light to see through you
I really don't need your love to see me through, no
I really don't need your heart to set me free
I really don't need the way it used to be, oh Now your so full of schemes
I see right through you like a silver screen
All of your alibis have long gone I really don't need no light to see through you
I really don't need your love to see me through, no
I really don't need your heart to set me free
I really don't need the way it used to be, oh
I really don't need, I really don't need no light
I really don't need, I really don't need no light
I really don't need, I really don't need no light
I really don't need no light to see through you
