

Perfect Illusion

Lady Gaga

Trying to get control
Pressure's taking its toll
Stuck in the middle zone
I just want you alone My guessing game is strong
Way too real to be wrong
Caught up in your show
Yeah, at least now I know It wasn't love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion (perfect illusion)
Mistaken for love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion (perfect illusion)
Oh, you were a perfect illusion
I don't need eyes to see
I felt you touching me
High like amphetamine
Maybe you're just a dream That's what it means to crush
Now that I'm waking up
I still feel the blow
But at least now I know It wasn't love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion (perfect illusion)
Mistaken for love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion (perfect illusion) (Where are you? 'Cause I can't see you)
It was a perfect illusion (but I feel you watching me)
(Dilated, falling free in a modern ecstasy)
(Where are you? 'Cause I can't see you)
It was a perfect illusion (but I feel you watching me)
(But I feel you watching me)
Illusion (but I feel you watching me) Mistaken for love
(Where are you? 'Cause I can't see you)
(But I feel you watching me)
Mistaken for love (dilated, falling free)
(In a modern ecstasy)
Mistaken for love (in a modern ecstasy)
(In a modern ecstasy) I'm over the show
Yeah, at least now I know It wasn't love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion (perfect illusion)
Mistaken for love, it wasn't love
It was a perfect illusion (perfect illusion) Oh, you were a perfect illusion
Oh, it was a perfect illusion It was a perfect illusion
Somewhere in all the confusion
It was a perfect illusion, illusion, illusion It was a perfect illusion
Somewhere in all the confusion
You were so perfect

You were a, you were a perfect illusion
