

Dream

Bishop Briggs

Crying eyes, broken bells
Back in course, no one tells
Down we go, wish me well

I don't know where we fell Oh, I had a dream that you couldn't hear me screaming
Trying to tell you everything but it wouldn't stop you leaving I wanna wake up where your love is

'Cause your love is always waking mine
I wanna break down where your heart gets
So torn it's almost breaking mine
I wanna lay here, lost and bitter
So long, I feel like I could die
I wanna tell you what my truth is
But it's buried down inside
Shining light, show and tell
Don't be scared, truth is hell
Down we go, wish me well

No one knows where we fell Oh, I had a dream that you couldn't hear me screaming
Trying to tell you everything but it wouldn't stop you leaving I wanna wake up where your love
is

'Cause your love is always waking mine
I wanna break down where your heart gets
So torn it's almost breaking mine
I wanna lay here, lost and bitter
So long, I feel like I could die
I wanna tell you what my truth is
But it's buried down inside They say that secrets make you sick
And I should know
Just promise me that If I tell you, you will go
Oh oh oh

I wanna wake up where your love is
'Cause your love is always waking mine
I wanna break down where your heart gets
So torn it's almost breaking mine
I wanna lay here, lost and bitter
So long, I feel like I could die
I wanna tell you what my truth is
But it's buried down inside It's buried down inside

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://greatlyrics.net/>

