

So Much Love

The Rocket Summer

Hearts need a beat, like awake needs asleep like a pen needs a page, to learn right you need a mistake Oh, Yeah!

Hearts need a mind, like a clock needs the time like white needs black, if you leave I hope you need to come back Oh, i swear, i know, i believe it, oh

I can't stop hearing all the singin'
Oh my soul has never had this feelin'
it feels like gold
You got so much love in you
You got so much love in you

I'm amazed that i'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs that i've heard my whole life coming true
Strike all the bells, hit 'em hard, make 'em all yell
Celebrate, infatuate, lock us up, yeah, incarcerate oh!
Oh, i swear, i know, i believe it, oh

I can't stop hearing all the singing Oh my soul has never had this feeling it feels like so, so, so much love in you
You got so much love in you

I'm amazed that i'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs that i've heard my whole life coming true
You got so much love in you
You got so much love in you

I'm amazed that i'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs... oh yeahh, oh come on... ahhh, ahhhh...

You got so much love in you
You got so much love in you

I'm amazed that i'm talkin' to you
You look like the songs that i've heard my whole life coming true... you look like the songs, oh oh oh oh!
