

Something That I Want

Grace Potter

She's a girl with the best intentions
He's a man of his own invention
She looked out of the window
He walked out the door
But she followed him
And he said, "What'cha looking for?" She said, "I want something that I want
Something that I tell myself I need
And I need everything I see."
Something that I tell myself I need
And I need everything I see He's been living in a pure illusion
She's gonna come to her own conclusion
Right when you think you know what to say Someone comes along and shows you a brand new way She said, "I want something that I want
Something that I tell myself I need
And I need everything I see." Something that I tell myself I need
And I need everything - 'cause It's so easy to make believe, it seems you're living in a dream
Don't you see that what you need is standing in front of you?
I want something that I want
Something that I tell myself I need
And I need everything I see Something that I tell myself I need
And I need everything I see
