

Somebody Else Will (feat. Missy Elliott)

Tweet

Let me tell you how I feel
My man told me I should chill
I told my man, "Let me keep it real
If you can't love me, then I know somebody else that will!"
(New Tweet!)

Oh, now he all up in his feelings?
He ain't did nothing for me in a minute
I cut him off just like the end of a sentence
He seen me with somebody else, no more pretending!
(Let's go!)

[Verse 1 - Tweet:]

Boy, you thought that I would never leave
I tried to compromise
I'm wondering, "Do you still love me?"
Cause I don't see it in your eyes
I don't feel it when you hold me
Don't feel like you still love me
I'm all up in my feelings
I feel like it is something, damn!
What am I doing wrong?

You gon' miss me when I'm gone! [Chorus - Tweet:]

If you don't love me, somebody else will
If you don't love me, somebody else will
This time around, I ain't crying no tears
Think I won't leave? This time I will
All right

I'll be all right

If you don't love me, somebody else will
If you don't love me, somebody else will!

[Verse 2 - Tweet:]

Oooo, I did the best that I could ever do
But you had too many demands
Sometimes I feel like I still love you
Can't let you keep it up again
I don't feel it when you with me
Feel nothing when you kiss me
It's like [?] and it hit me
What am I doing wrong?

And why I stay here? [Chorus - Tweet:]
If you don't love me, somebody else will
If you don't love me, somebody else will
This time around, I ain't crying no tears

Think I won't leave? This time I will
All right
I'll be all right
If you don't love me, somebody else will
If you don't love me, somebody else will!
(Shoot!) You don't say the sweet things that you used to say
(Shoot!) And now you're trying to treat me like your other babe
(Shoot!) I'm not part time lover, I'm your everyday
(Shoot!) You wanna hit the streets and go and head the other way
(Shoot!) Cause you gon' miss me when I'm gone
(Shoot!) I bet you feel oh so alone
(Shoot!) Boy I'm done crying so many tears (Shoot!) If you don't love me, somebody else will!
If you don't love me, somebody else will
If you don't love me, somebody else will
This time around, I ain't crying no tears
Think I won't leave? This time I will
All right
I'll be all right
If you don't love me, somebody else will
If you don't love me, somebody else will!]Hey, yeah
If you don't love me
Don't have to love me
Someone else can love me right
Someone else can love me right
Right
Right
Right
Someone else can love me rightHey, yeah
If you don't love me
Don't have to love me
Someone else can love me right
Someone else can love me right
Right
Right
Right
Someone else can love me right
