

Adalita (feat. Chela)

Goldroom

We walked a long the setting done
The bulls were speld in chunk on the bud
We run, run, run and we got no were fall to long, to long
We bang the drums and we got stunk by so for long, return
Oh at a lider, can you see the hawk that you hold
Oh at a lider, can you beat a dream new come true
Oh at a lider, you can beat the flamming cold
Oh at a lider, can you see what I haven't told
I still can trust
The bow for arrow, came and come
We spend ours days on fed from the pond
We have one another and I use from cover, but there's a scar
They're from a scolt and we got lost and sold, but we're still here
Oh at a lider, can you see the hawk that you hold
Oh at a lider, can you beat a dream new come true
Oh at a lider, you can beat the flamming cold
Oh at a lider, can you see what I haven't told
I still can trust
I still can trust (Oost.)
I still can trust
I still can trust
