

Dogwood

Whiskey Myers

Dancin' on the creek bank
Blue eyes and auburn hair
It was the best years of our life
 Didn't have a care
Goin' ninety miles an hour
Drunk on an old dirt road
 Two young ass kids
Back where the dogwood flowers grow Then graduation came
 You was big city bound
 I was goin' nowhere fast
 So I just hung around
By the next time you seen me
 Our love had turned cold
So I guess you broke my heart
Back where the dogwood flowers grow
 Right on the moon
 That April moon
It could have been forever darlin'
 Let's stay together
 At the grove time goes slow
Took me further from your heart
Back where the dogwood flowers grow So I took to drinkin'
 I guess you wouldn't recognize me
 My soul's been torn and twisted
 Like that old dogwood tree
 You talk about forever
That was a million miles ago
 So I'll see you if I see you
Back where the dogwood flowers grow
 Right on the moon
 That April moon
 You ain't fixin to leave
And then you asked me what I need
 Just kidding 'round
 And remember when
 You had that hand to hold
Back where the dogwood flowers grow
 The dogwood flowers grow
 The dogwood flowers grow
 The dogwood flowers grow
