

Taste (feat. VanJess)

KAYTRANADA

If you want a taste, what you bring to the plate?
If you want a taste, bring something to the plate, yeah
If you want a taste, what you bring to the plate?
If you want a taste, bring something to the plate, yeah You saying something, whole lot of nothing (Nah)
Do more than texting, no "How your day been?" (Nah)
Don't wanna give in, this shit ain't worth it (Nah)
And I'm a blessing, you should be thankful
Last minute calls, I will ignore
Think that ahead of time, if
You're feeling more, then that's your fault
I'm not your entertainment If you want a taste, what you bring to the plate?
If you want a taste, bring something to the plate, yeah
If you want a taste, what you bring to the plate?
If you want a taste, bring something to the plate, yeah
Taste
Yeah, I like taste
Yeah, I like taste
Yeah, I like taste
Taste
Yeah, I like taste
Yeah, I like taste
Yeah, I like taste I'm stepping out tonight, you're fillin' up with fright
But you can't cross the line, no matter how you try
'Cause baby, I'm the prize, and you can't win this time
I know what I deserve, gotta put me first
You won't see my face 'less I'm gettin' up in your face (Your face)
'Less I'm puttin' you in your place (Your place)
Oh, yeah
You gon' learn somethin' today, that I don't really need a... (No)
Don't really need a...
Oh, yeah (Yeah)
If you want a taste, what you bring to the plate?
If you want a taste, bring something to the plate, yeah
If you want a taste, what you bring to the plate?
If you want a taste, bring something to the plate, yeah You saying something
Do more than texting
Don't wanna give in
And I'm a blessing Taste
Yeah, I like taste
Yeah, I like taste
