

Better Off

Ashlee Simpson

The sky is fallin', and it's Early in the mornin', but it's Okay somehow
I spilt my coffee, it went
All over your clothes
I gotta wear mine now And I'm always, always, always late
And my hair's a mess
Even when it's straight But so what?
I'm better off everyday
When I'm standing in the pouring rain
I don't mind
I think of you and everything's alright
I used to think i had it good
But now I know that I'm misunderstood
With you I'd say
I'm better off in everyway
My friends keep calling, they say
They say I'm stalling
They wanna meet you now
I tell them hell no, I say
We're trying to lay low
Don't wanna lose what I've found Things are finally, finally lookin' up
Oh, my feet are on the ground even though i'm stuck But so what?
I'm better off everyday
When I'm standing in the pouring rain
I don't mind
I think of you and everything's alright
I used to think I had it good
But now I know that I'm misunderstood
With you I'd say
I'm better off in everyway
Things are finally, finally lookin' up
Oh, my feet are on the ground even though i'm stuck
Even though i'm stuck But so what?
I'm better off everyday
When I'm standing in the pouring rain
I don't mind
I think of you and everything's alright
I used to think I had it good
But now I know that i'm misunderstood Yeah, yeah
I'm better off in everyway
I'm better off today The sky is fallin' and it's

Early in the mornin'
But it's okay
