

Better Strangers

Royal Blood

There's nothing left inside, I found a whole new low
My heart is open wide, with no love to show
I know I got high, but you didn't have to leave me so
Brother beat me blue, sister bled me dry
That's why I count on you, when you don't treat me right
I know I held tight but you didn't have to leave me so
Hollow, hollow, I don't need you tonight,
so don't
Follow, follow, left alone in the valley, so
Hollow, hollow, I know you want to be mine so don't
Follow, follow
Lost my heavy heart, you won't be replaced
I can't fill the void, walk the empty space
So remember my face, everytime you're left feeling so
Hollow, hollow, I don't need you tonight,
so don't
Follow, follow, left alone in the valley, so
Hollow, hollow, I know you want to be mine so don't
Follow, follow
There's nothing left inside
I found a whole new low
My heart is open wide
With no love to show
Cause I'm a thousand miles from danger if I make a better stranger
A thousand miles from danger if I make a better stranger
A thousand miles from danger if I make a better stranger of you
I don't need you tonight, so don't
Follow, follow
Left alone in the valley, so
Hollow, hollow, I know you want to be mine, so don't
Follow, follow
Hollow, hollow, hollow, hollow
Hollow, hollow, hollow, hollow
Hollow, hollow, hollow, hollow,
Hollow, hollow
Cause I'm a thousand miles from danger if I make a better stranger of you
