

Already Knew That

Ro James

Yeah
That's right baby
That's right baby
That's right baby
That's right baby
That's right baby
That's right baby
You be actin' like you on one
You be actin' like you don't want it
How you gon' lie to me
Don't I stay a hundred if its some over
It's something like you on top of me, right now
Breathing on me and I'm breathing on you
It's like making love
but it's more like making magic
We be stopping traffic
We be going this hard
Oh
But you already knew that
Girl
But you already knew that
Girl
That's about that
I ain't sayin it no more
Bout to be a ballad
I wasn't playing no more
I aint playing no more games no more
No no no
But you already knew that
You know I don't fuck around
You already knew that Baby, gon' head
put them panties down
Nevermind lemme do that
Now smile
Lemme do that Opportunist when I do that I know you like it when I do that
You my only one babe
You make me feel some type of way
I need your body all day

I'm like a young Marvin in this day
Ooh babe
I can't fight this feeling
No no no no
But you already knew that
girl
girl
Now let me in that thing
speak back
Cuz I need a lil feedback
I won't leave
I won't leave you
but if I do Imma be back
I won't leave
Never leave you
But if I do imma speed back
I'm in the v8
with the seat back
Fuck the police cuz I need that Real right
Imma feen and I mean that (that's right babe)
Cuz you already knew that
Girl
you already knew that girl
girl
