

Anniversary Song

Eva Cassidy

Today has been a special day an anniversary, a request that you play your piano as the evening sun slowly sets I never thought I'd get this old dear
and the lord's been like my shadow even when I was wrong
no I never thought it would turn out this way the birthday with apologies for all the tears and regrets and I've always saved your poetry for these years when you forget I never thought I'd get this old dear
so sing with me softly as the day turns to night and later I'll dream of paradise with you
I love you
and goodnight
