

Want You

Luh Kel & Queen Naija

LUH KEL - WANT YOU FT. QUEEN NAIJAI got some things that's on my mind, baby you need to know

You promised you would close, and you won't let me go

Trust me, no I ain't in my prime, I still got time to grow

'Cause you're the only one I think about when I'm alone (Alone)Ooh I want you (You)

You're my everything, I want you (You)

You know baby, baby I want you

You're my everything, I want you

It's something stuck inside my mind, I just don't understand

Told me that you won't ever leave but then you left again (Yeah)

You took my whole heart with a glance (Glance)

Hold me right in your arms and your hands

Come right here, baby why is you playin'?

Love when you give me all this romance, oh (Oh woah, oh)

It ain't nobody else that have my heart (My heart)

I was bleeding 'til you healed my scars

You told me you won't ever go, and when we're apart

So I think I need to let you know (Yeah), without you it's hardI got some things that's on my mind, baby you need to know

You promised you would close, and you won't let me go

Trust me, no I ain't in my prime, I still got time to grow

'Cause you're the only one I think about when I'm alone (Alone)Ooh I want you (You)

You're my everything, I want you (You)

You know baby, baby I want you

You're my everything, I want you

Ooh I want you (You)

You're my everything, I want you (You)

You know baby, baby I want you

You're my everything, I want youI love it when you show me, you're vulnerable

Tell me all your secrets, boy, I wanna know

If you get back, get back with me, you'll never go (You'll never go)

We break up, to make up, it's a part of growth (Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)

I couldn't see myself without you either (Ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)

As much I say that I want to leave you

I do get lonely sometimes, don't want just anyone, boy I need you (Ooh)

I, can name many times

But I, could've handle you, givin' away my love

I'm, selfish, want you all to myself, and nobody elseI got some things that's on my mind, baby
you need to know (Need to know)

You promised you would close, and you won't let me go (Let me go)

Trust me, no I ain't in my prime, I still got time to grow (Oh-oh, ooh)

'Cause you're the only one I think about when I'm alone (You're the only one)Ooh I want you

(You)
You're my everything, I want you (You're my everything, you)
You know baby, baby I want you (Want you)
You're my everything, I want you
