

Glory Days (feat. Hayley Kiyoko)

Sweater Beats

Time to live
Time to live like we're coming to war
Time is a gift
Time is a present that cannot be bought
Show me your list
Show me your list and let's cross some shit off
Cross some shit off
Show me your list and then cross some shit off Why are we waiting?
Why are we, what are we waiting for?
So sick of waiting
So let's be impatient, let's be impatient
It's okay to get a little irresponsible
'Cause we're making up the blueprint as we go
Yeah, we're on our way to the glory days
It's okay to live a little bit of life you see
'Cause tomorrow isn't guaranteed
Yeah, we're on our way to the glory days Glory days
Glory days Sorry not sorry
We are a mess and we're wearing it well
Sorry not sorry
We are connected like out of this world
Don't fear danger
One life to live so we live how we like
We live how we like, yeah, yeah
Why are we waiting?
Why are we, what are we waiting for?
So sick of waiting
So let's be impatient, let's be impatient It's okay to get a little irresponsible
'Cause we're making up the blueprint as we go
Yeah, we're on our way to the glory days
It's okay to live a little bit of life you see
'Cause tomorrow isn't guaranteed
Yeah, we're on our way to the glory days Glory days
Glory days
Glory days
Glory days On our way (on our way)
To the glory days (glory days)
On our way (on our way)
To the glory days It's okay to get a little irresponsible
'Cause we're making up the blueprint as we go
Yeah, we're on our way to the glory days
It's okay to live a little bit of life you see

'Cause tomorrow isn't guaranteed
Yeah, we're on our way to the glory days
Glory days
Glory days
Glory days
Glory days
