

Open (feat. Moksi & Jonna Fraser)

Yellow Claw

Let's take a moment and see how far we can explore
Body to body, a distant we open your door Bottle rockets are blowing, hands are exploring
Position myself, I like

Whisky makes me controlling, I care for nothing
Let go and live for a night Tell me nothing, tell me nothing

Show me love right in the open
Tell me nothing, tell me nothing
Show me love right in the open
Tell me nothing, tell me nothing
Show me love right in the open
Tell me nothing, tell me nothing
Show me love right in the open

Tell me

I'll bring the motion, just let it take over your life Shoulder to shoulder, we both feel like losing control Bottle rockets are blowing, hands are exploring

Position myself, I like

Whisky makes me controlling, I care for nothing

Let go and live for a night
Tell me nothing, tell me nothing
Show me love right in the open
Tell me nothing, tell me nothing
Show me love right in the open
Tell me nothing, tell me nothing
Show me love right in the open
Tell me nothing, tell me nothing
Show me love right in the open

Tell me
