

The Stranger (Reimagined)

Ingrid Andress

I can't remember the last time
We sat at the table, just the two of us Looked into each other's eyes And made the choice to choose us Let's trace the steps of where we've been
To make it feel like home again
You play the stranger
I'll play the girl at the bar
The same place where all this got started
Sometimes I wish I didn't know you at all
So we could do it all over
Fall all over each other again
I know you remember that first night
I asked if you would wanna dance
You made me laugh in the neon light
With your two left feet telling me you can't Let's trace those steps to we can find
Where we got lost in love that time
And you play the stranger
I'll play the girl at the bar
The same place where all this got started
Sometimes I wish I didn't know you at all
So we could do it all over
Fall all over each other again Let's trace the steps of where we've been
To make it feel like home again
You play the stranger
I'll play the girl at the bar
The same place where all this got started
Sometimes I wish I didn't know you at all
So we could do it all over
Fall all over each other
Do it all over and
Fall all over each other again
