

Tongue-Tied

Aqualung

I'm tongue tied waiting
hoping and praying
lying beside you
longing
to touch you but this feels like the end so tired we are
drifting
too far
eyes closed
tightly
thinking
there might be some way
but this feels like the end what went wrong
I need to know
I can feel
You're letting go Though there is
so much to say
I'm tongue tied
tongue tied
waiting I'm tongue tied waiting
hoping
and praying
so near
yet so far
alone
together
still this feels like the end
feels like the end
