

Why I Love You So Much

Monica

Oooh baby
You give me the world ooooh and everything that I want for Since I've been your girl
Oh my whole life has been much better than ever before
You got a tender sweet love, yes you do
That weakens me and takes over me whenever we touchChorus-
Baby that's just why I love you so much
Baby that's just why I can't get enough
Baby that's just why I love you so much
I love only you
Now you say that your down
Oh you said you won't play around
No, no not with my heart
And when your boys come around
No your not disrespecting me
And not trying to be Mr.-wanna-be-hard
You let them know that I'm yours yes you do
By holding me, and kissing me
Lets them know that for sureRepeat chorusYes, you don't ever say I'm too young thank you baby
I've been around enough to know enough, know just what I want
You don 't move too fast or make me rush, No
One day we're gonna talk about making love, no doubt
Baby when the time is rightRepeat chorus
Baby no one else
Can do what you're doing to me
You take me and you hold me
You rub me in your arms baby
And I love you for that baby
You don't front in front of your friends
And you smart enough to be be a real man
And I love you, and I love you, and I love you for that babyRepeat chorus
