

I'm No Good

Rittz

Yeah

Sometimes I just get fucking pissed off
I just get sick of all this bullshit
Shit's sad growing up in the gutter
But I met a lot of kids, want to be like I am
It's weird, people see you on the come up
Then you happy with some money but I'm meaning I'm pissed
My girlfriend knows that I love her
But I mentally abuse her and I treat her like shit
We both suicidal, she a cutter
All I do is self-loath, what's the reason I live?
We'd just empty liquor bottles in the cupboard
Lying to each other like next week we'll quit
Get drunk, make a straw outta dollar
But it's okay, it's only cocaine, not meth
My family looking at me like a fuck up
And they're right, and I don't want to disappoint my twin
I pray one day I'll recover
But it's like I'm tryin' to schedule an appointment with the - devil
Lords knows that I don't wanna - die
So I'm begging, praying help me please
I lie like [?] in the summer
With anxiety and I ain't got no self-esteem
A lot of people are going wanna tell me shut up
Cause they got it way worse, I'm a selfish piece of shit
Make a motherfucker wonder, what it's gonna take for me to change mentally
Bags underneath my eyes cause I lift too fast
Grey hairs on my beard
Feelin' like I can't breath if I don't take a pill so I'm always on a Xan
Drink a bottle every night
I feel the done damage to my liver
I ain't ever been this fat and disgusting
I don't wanna rap, I wanna nap on my love-seat
I ain't sayin' this to get no pity, I'm just feelin' shitty lookin' like a piece of metal rusting and trust me
And I don't really like
The person I've become
This isn't who I thought I would turn into when I was young
But now I'm grown and they say I'm
No Good
No Good
No Good
No Good

No Good

No Good

I'm just a drug addict, drunk, I'm

No Good

No Good

No Good

No Good

No Good

No Good

They say I need to turn my life around

I don't know, maybe I'm a hater

I'm supposed to write a rap, but I hate rap now

Stop breathin' when I'm sleeping then I wake up

Still in my clothes, can't remember how I passed out

Lately I'm an angry drunk am I'm afraid I

Might have been a dick, best friend's gettin' cussed out

But, fucker then I guess I found a liter

What I done, 'nother hungover day bummed out

Ooh shit I didn't know who was at [?]

Nose bleedin', trying to act like I ain't sniff shit

People think they're motivating me to take up a different lifestyle

Fuck them and their Fitbit

They just wanna help but don't appreciate uh

Cause they love me, and they don't wanna see me die young

Every day I'm dissapointin' my creator

I've been strugglin' to get up, but the hole I dug

Lately I've been switchin' over to the vapor

Chain smokin Newports [?]

I can see my future and it's [?]

Girl cryin' to the operator, calling 9-1-1

I tour, blessed to be an entertainer

Been spendin' months away from home, there's nothing I find fun

Signed a record deal, I love the record label

Three albums later, I'm underrated when it's my time come

Couldn't afford the tour bus, so I went and bought a van

There's some money selling records, so I got to tour again

I don't wanna bore the fans, so I bought a couple lights

Plus some background singers, but I can't afford a band

Jealous of these rich rappers and the money that they make

I was up outside of Chili's having lunch and a lame

Started routing for his team, and I scream, and I see

Happy people wanna punch him in the face

I'm ashamed cause I don't really like

The person I've become

This isn't who I thought I would turn into when I was young

But now I'm grown and they say I'm

No Good

No Good

No Good

No Good
No Good
No Good
I'm just a drug addict, drunk, I'm
No Good
No Good
No Good
No Good
No Good
No Good

They say I need to turn my life around Yeah!

Ye-ye-ye-uh-yeah

Ye-ye-ye-FUCK!

Fuck it
